

Adventist Youth Leadership Certification (Maria Almonte)
Workshop	Description	Presenter	Time Slot
Contemporary Issues	To increase your capacity to engage the theological issues of our day. The goal is to grow in interpreting, applying, and communicating God's truth in an often-fragmented church in an increasingly resistant culture.	Guadalupe Montour	Thursday #1
Ministry in a Cross-Cultural Setting	Ministry must embrace the complexities and challenges of a multicultural world. Cross cultural ministry compounds the normal problems of evangelism, increasing possible misunderstanding. Effective leaders must balance communicating with people who have different backgrounds, values and cultural mores, while representing their faith tradition with integrity.	Pako Edson Mokgwane	Thursday #2
Need for Adventist Youth Ministries	As a Youth Leader, working with our youth can be the greatest source of joy and satisfaction as we see them grow in Jesus and become disciples of His. As the church continues to fulfill its prophetic divine mission from the Bible, the youth leader, as well as the youth of the church need a clear understanding of the Adventist mission as it relates to being a prophetic church in these last days. Only then can the youth leader understand the prophetic role the youth department plays in the work and mission of the church and its prophetic existence in these last days.	Josue Feliciano	Friday
How to Lead an Effective Adventist Youth Society	The Adventist Youth Society is a community program that brings all the youths together. Developing a purpose driven Adventist Youth Program model is integral to the success of the Program in the local church. An effective model requires you to use all your resources, such as, the youth, their parents, the pastor and volunteers to develop and implement a yearly plan with regular social, educational, spiritual and/or mission-oriented events meant to develop and maintain a vibrant program.	Sunilbe Siceron	Saturday
